

NBI QUICK BRIEF 2019

21 February 2019

An Equal and Inclusive Society | We need collaborative innovation to drive change

“The transformation of our economy into an inclusive one is a key imperative for all of us... There can be no higher priority.”

President Cyril Ramaphosa | BUSA Business Indaba, 2019

At the recent Business Economic Indaba (hosted by BUSA), President Ramaphosa was asked to share the one thing he wants to see from the private sector. Most of the audience comprising business leaders, might have expected him to emphasise job creation or investment. Instead his emphasis on the need for “real transformation” took many aback. The President’s emphasis on Transformation was a sobering reminder that the level of inequality in our society and the slow pace of change in the private sector is a risk to growth, sustainability and stability.
