Environmental, Social, Governance (ESG) Africa conference.

The National Business Initiative (NBI) is delighted to announce the first Environmental, Social, Governance (ESG) Africa conference, which is set to take place on 25-26 October 2022, at the Sandton Convention Centre.

The main theme of the conference is 'Sustainable Future Through Leadership'. This important event aims to create a platform for industry leaders and experts from across Africa to discuss, debate and find solutions to some of the common challenges faced in embedding ESG practices within organisations.

Key conference partners include the NBI, Business Unity South Africa (BUSA), Skultcha, Good Governance Academy, South African National Energy Association (SANEA), and Wits Business School.

This conference will be the first of its kind as it:

- Aims to tackle ESG holistically.
- Will explore how leaders from across the African continent can better embed ESG principles in their organisational strategies and value systems.
- Will examine the relevance and applicability of ESG in an African context.
- Will include a lineup of top local and international speakers and provide delegates with an opportunity to network and discuss the challenges, opportunities, and trends in relation to ESG.

A series of masterclasses will be available in the lead-up to the conference to help educate individuals and organisations on various aspects of ESG. The ESG 101 Masterclass will take place on 30 August and 7 September 2022, 9:00 AM-1:00 PM. To register for the class, click here.
